HIGH SCHOOL

YOUTH IS A TALENT . . . A PERISHABLE TALENT. YOUTH ONLY KNOCKS ONCE.

Going on in our school are the many things that make up youth. Showering up after a brisk gym class, turning on a belly-laugh with the kids at lunch, or just intently counting up cash received for the class treasury.

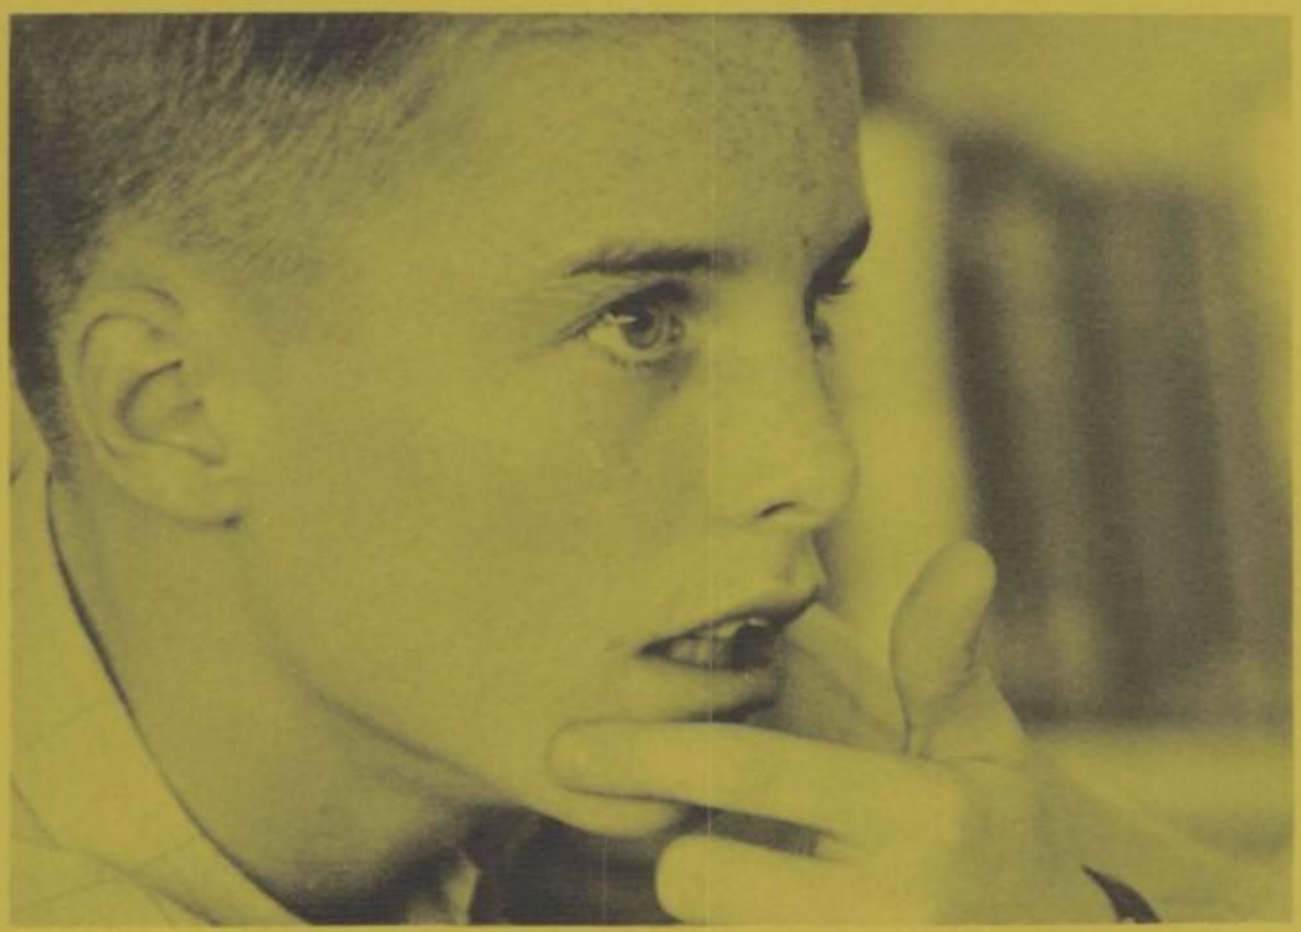
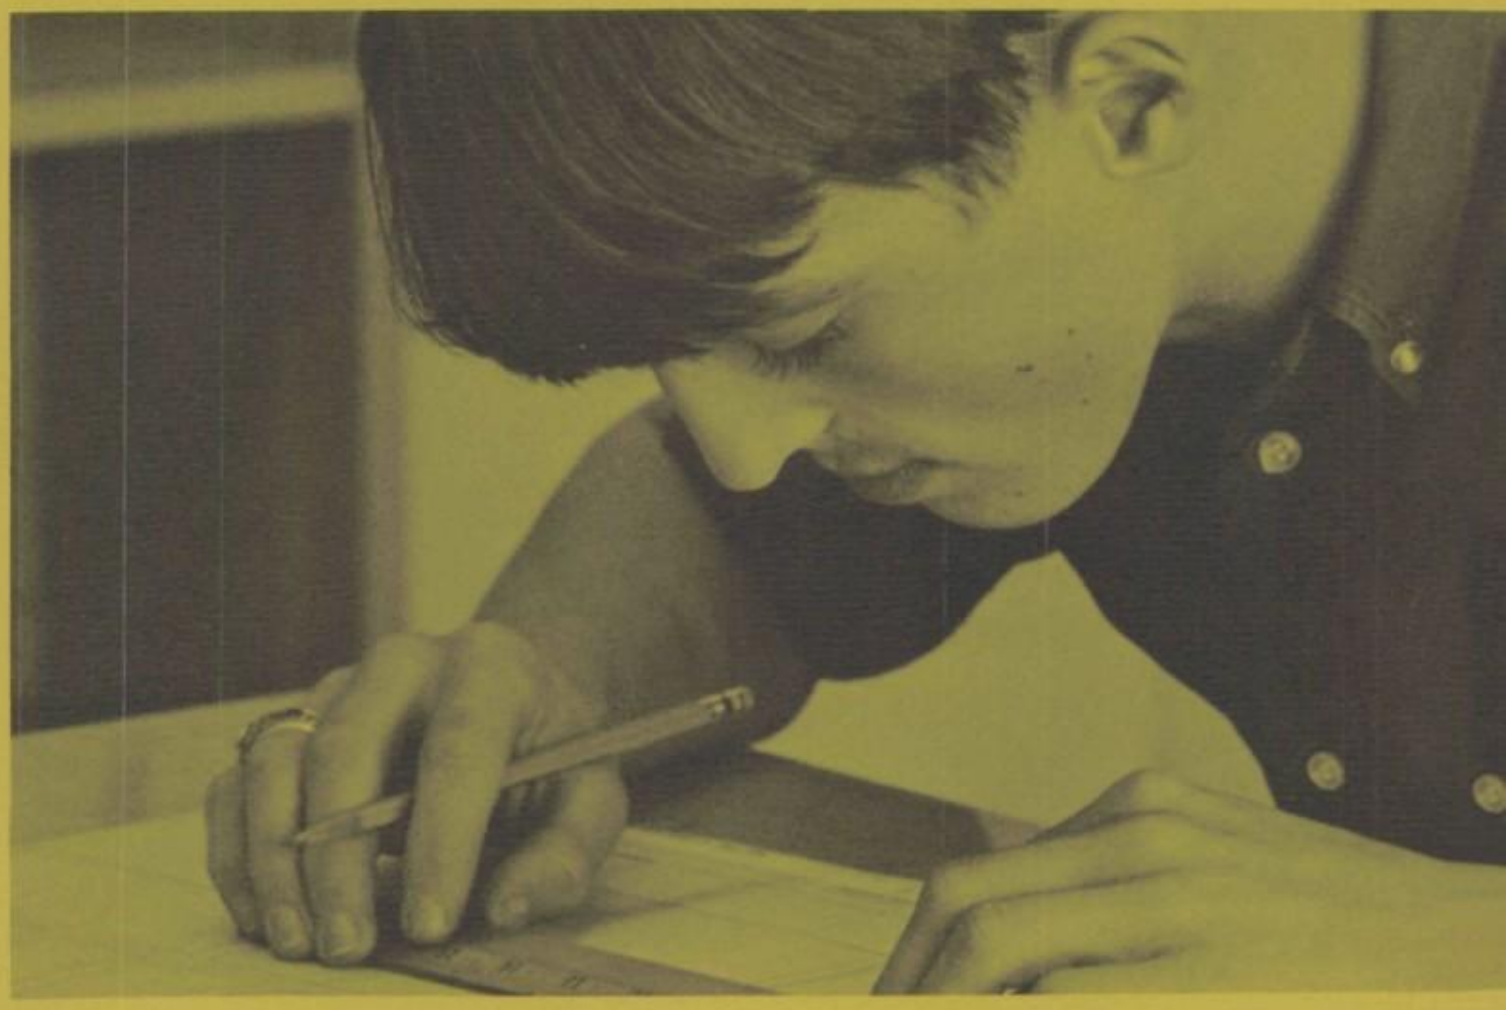
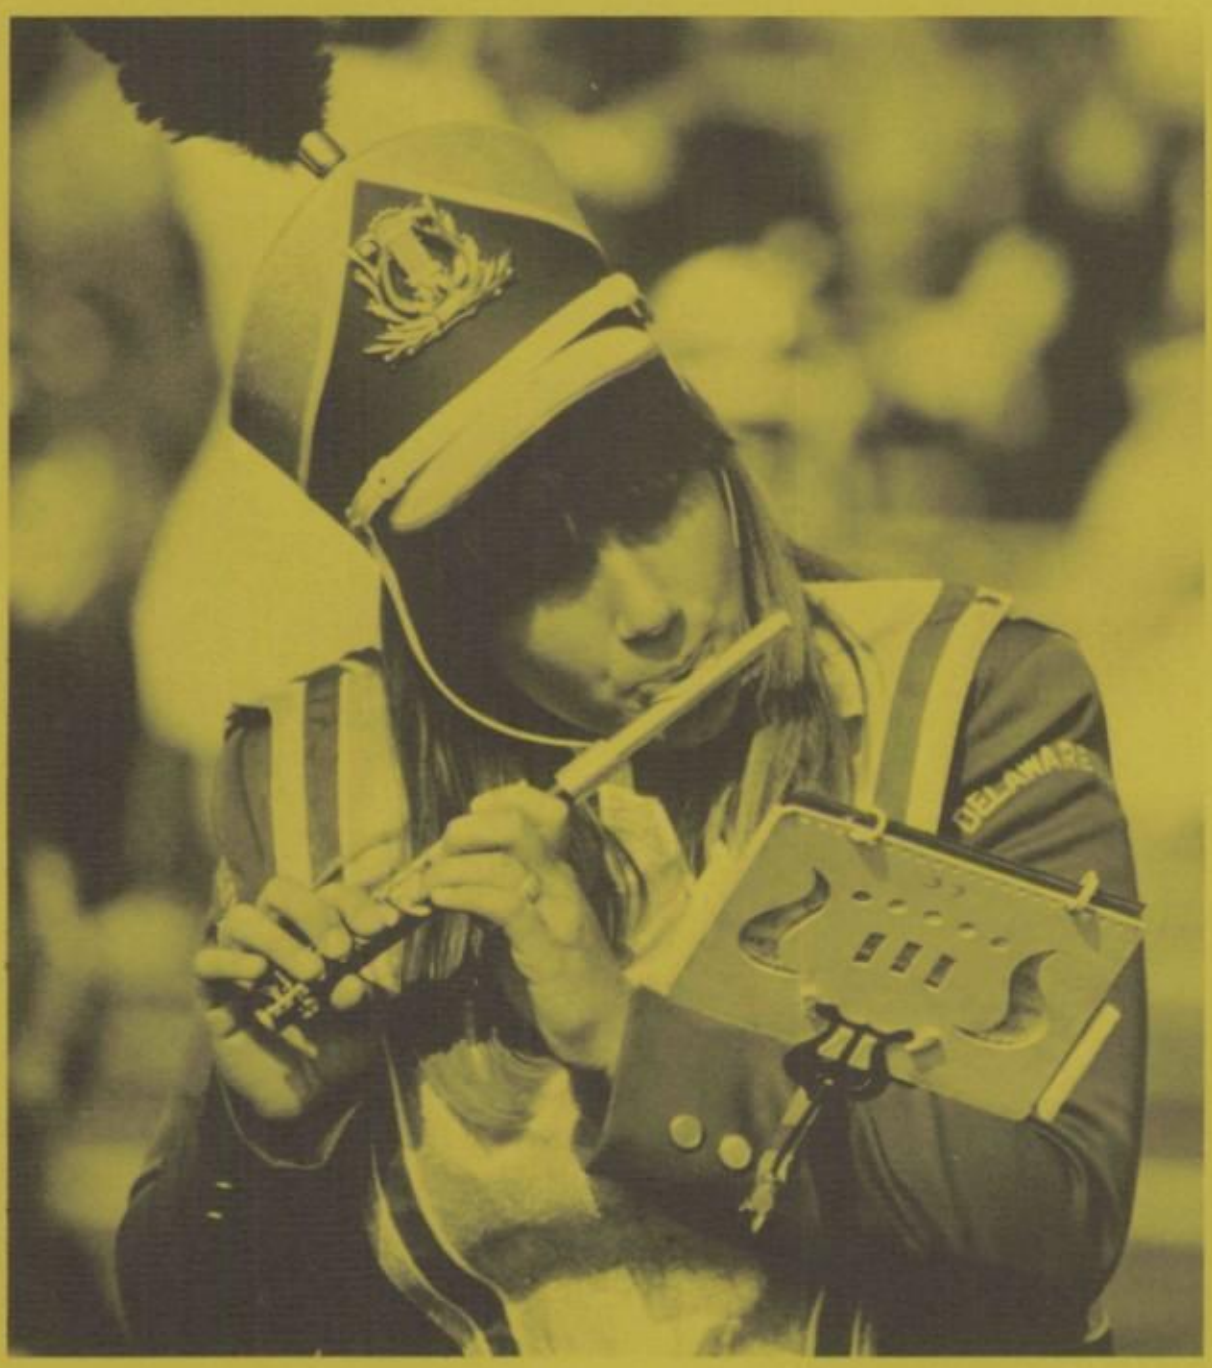
WE WORK . . . WE ACHIEVE . . . WE IDENTIFY.



As we learn from one year to another, our classrooms and shops become the marketplaces for our ideas.

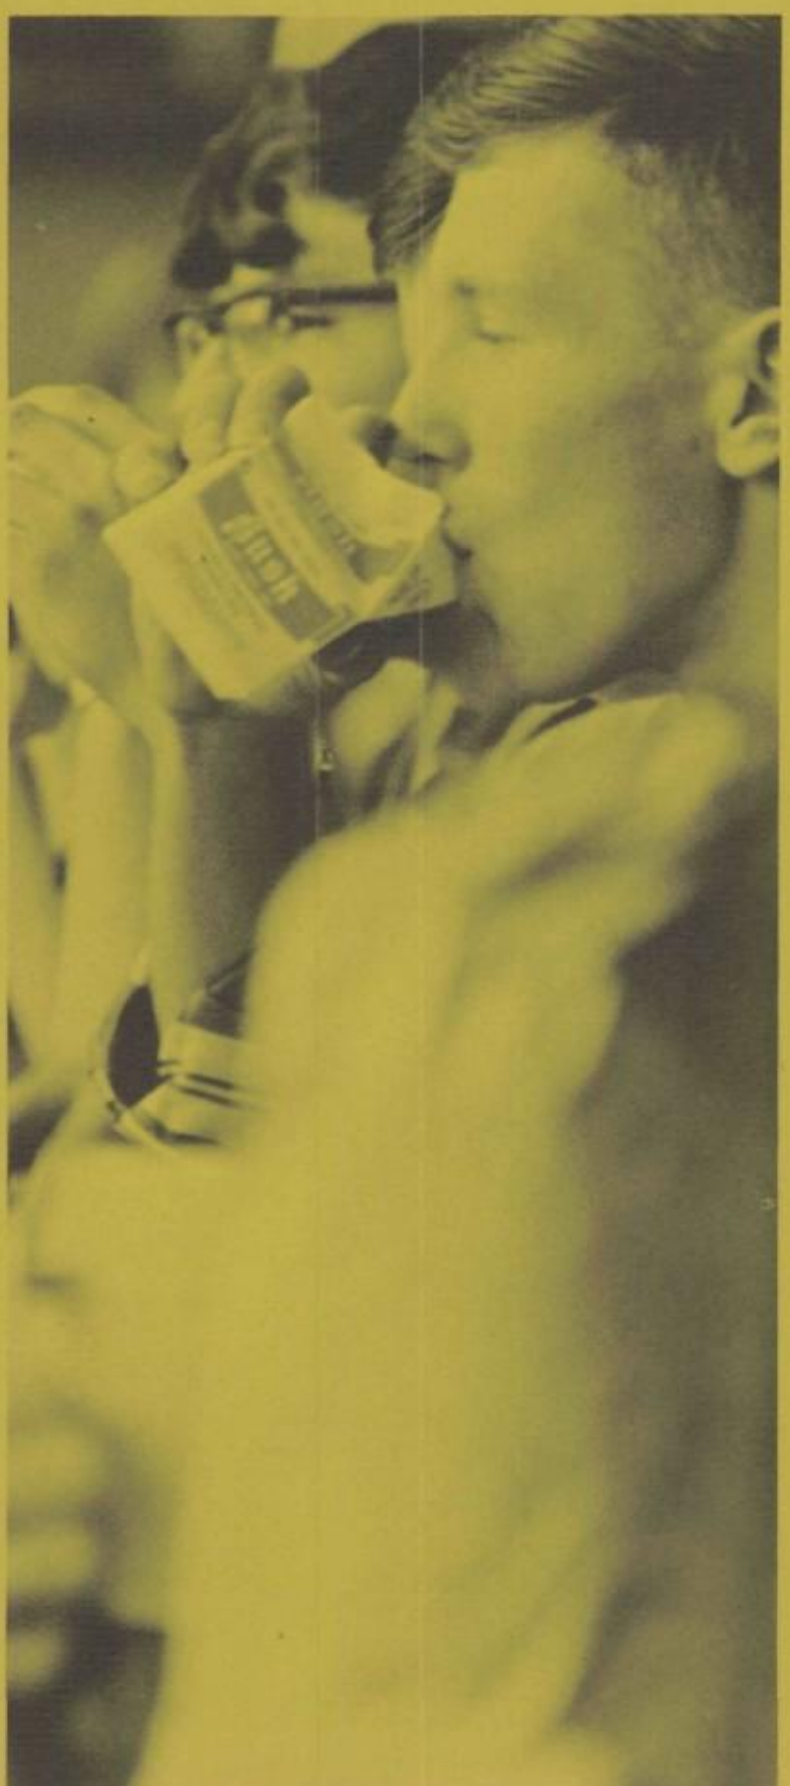


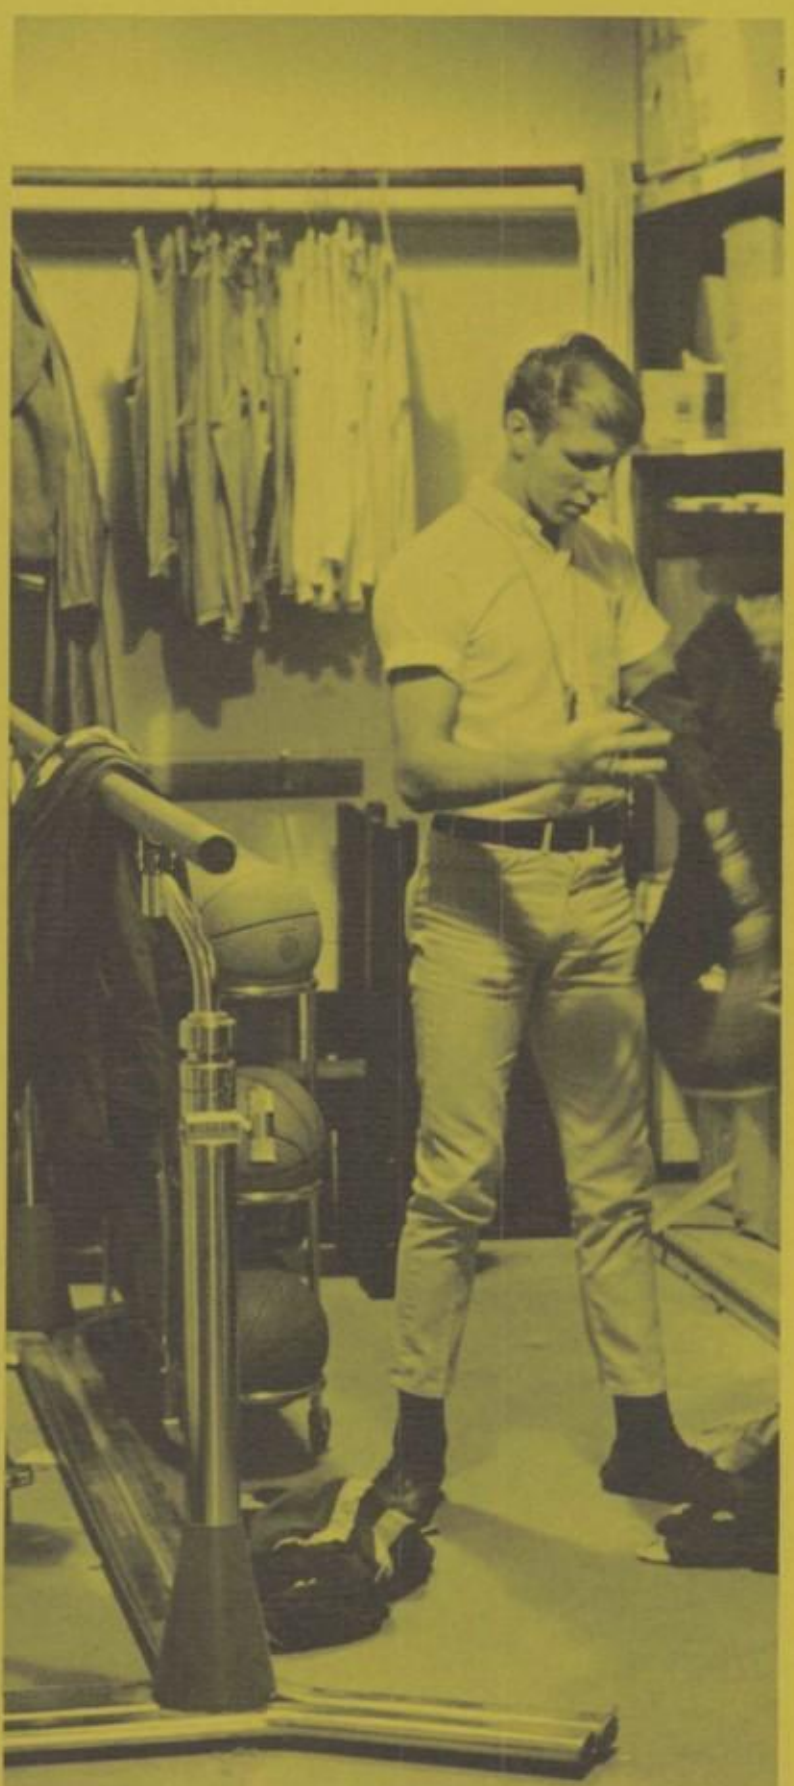
We Love Them

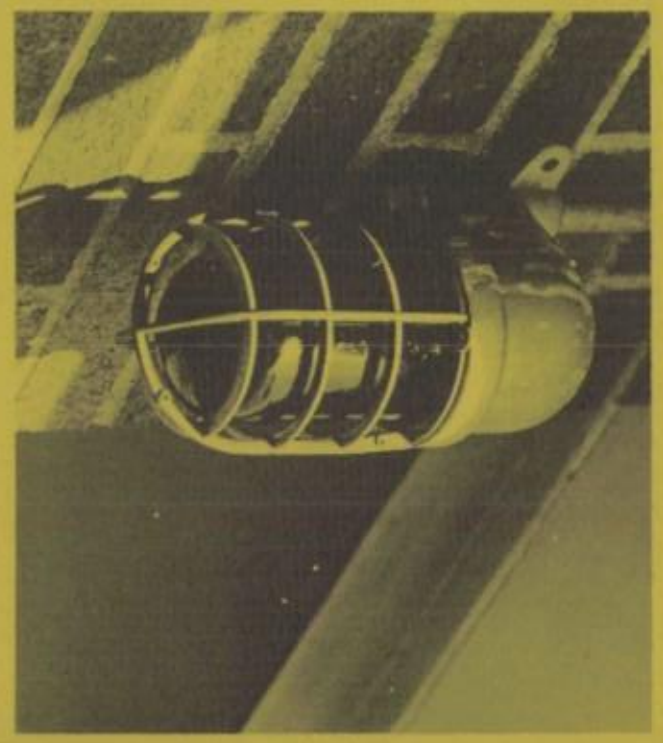


WE SHALL CHANGE THE WORLD.

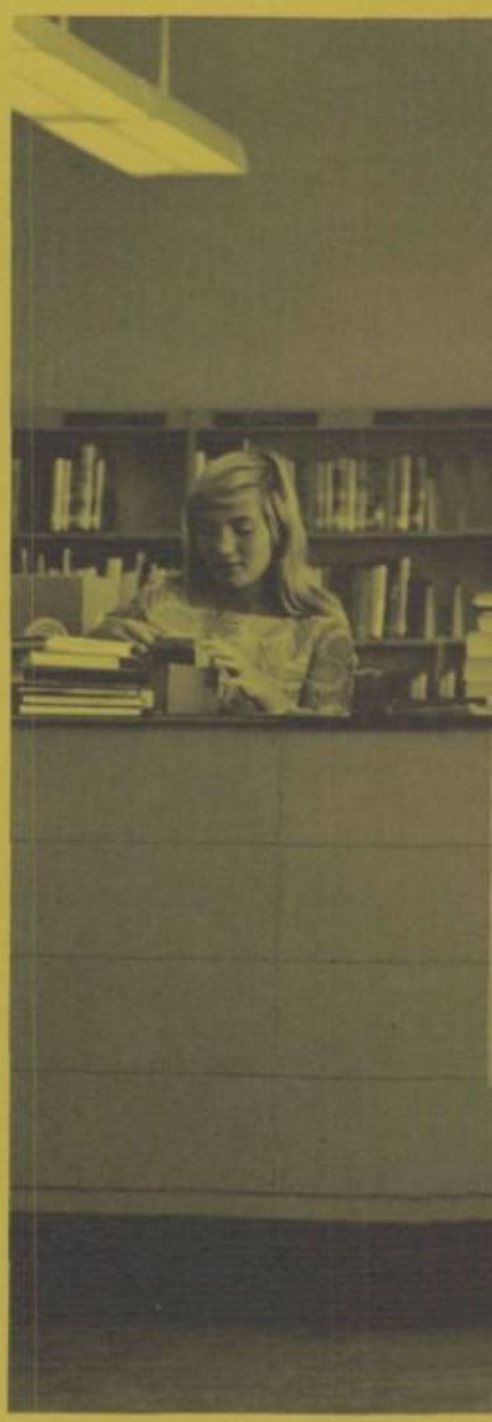
We learn from the many things we attempt. With this learning we will grow and be ready for changing times and conditions. If we are chosen, we shall remake the horizons of tomorrow.







OUR QUIET MOMENTS ARE MANY AND MEANINGFUL.



At the end of the day, when stillness prevails, our spirit still lingers in the rooms, halls, and out on the grounds.

We collect many things; valuable and not so valuable. Among those things treasured are memories, recollections, and images. Perhaps insignificant . . . perhaps not.

. . . OF THESE THINGS ARE MADE MEMORIES.

Delval Wins DRC Championship

HARD-HITTING TERRIERS WIN CROWNS!

by ED LAUBACH
Express Sports Writer

Ron Burd has the distinc-on of having coached the rst cha am in onference (1960-61) while at unterdon Central. After sev-n years, 72 victories and umerous heart-breaking loss-
, he is again sitting on top
the DRC.

Burd's Delaware Valley
rriers won the DRC title last ght by beating North unterdon 47-38 on the Lions'
or. The victory was the 10th raight over the Lions who have t beaten Delval since Jan.

Burd Cites Defense

"We played a terrible game night," observed the Terrier ach, "luckily our defense kept in there." Delval was outshot om the floor 15-13 but made for it from the free throw e where the Terriers nverted 21-of-35 compared
th 8-of-17 for the Lions.

Delaware Valley never trailed
the game but lacked enough nch to break it open. The rriers' biggest lead was 11
the game.

Delval shot 33 per cent from the floor (13-for-40 while the Lions hit on 31 per cent (15-for-48). North Hunterdon finished the season 6-10 in the DRC and 7-13 overall.

STUDENT COUNCIL

To look for and expect the best in our school and fellow students may seem unrealistic. Nevertheless, this has been the posture of the Student Council at Delaware Valley Regional High School. We have come to recognize a high sense of responsibility and concern in the overwhelming majority of our student body. We are proud to have represented them.

HEALTH CAREERS CLUB

Did you know that beside the doctor and nurse there are dozens of other career opportunities in hospitals? Here are just a few of them that we became aware of through our Health Career meetings: physical therapist, speech therapist, x-ray technician, laboratory technician, medical librarian, pharmacist, nutritionist, occupational therapist, medical social worker, etc. There are many others, too, to make the opportunities in the health field varied and exciting.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

What can we say about teaching that hasn't been before? It's a challenge . . . Yes. It's gratifying . . . Yes, again. It's difficult . . . Right. Of course, it causes us to wonder. The responsibility is overwhelming. But to be able to share in this intellectual growth of young people seems to make it all worth while.

Language study is like seed planting. Sometimes it bears fruit and sometimes it lies dormant. But the suggested potential of meeting exciting new people and seeing strange new lands is almost overwhelming in its promise. In the end, to be able to communicate our feelings and ideas to new friends gives the greatest lift.

STAGE CREW

MODERN DANCE

To be able to be absolutely free, relaxed, and light as a feather, is worth striving for. From the first moment the music is tuned on and the first step taken, modern dancers are transported, via musical rhythm, to the world of grace and freedom.

SENIOR PLAY

LOVE IS CONTAGIOUS

Long before the house lights go on, and long after the stage lights are dimmed for the last time, and indescribable shiver of excitement runs through our little theater. Each rehearsal builds imperceptibly toward the big night when "the show must go on." The subtle moments of thrills and the broader moments of stage-fright will never be reased from our innerness.

The smell of the grease-paint . . . The roar of the crowd?

"You artists are all alike."

PEP CLUB

To raise the spirits of the student body at all activities and functions is a big order. To encourage underclass participation in these same activities and functions is another big order. The energies of this club were evident.

SCHOOL STORE

There is a certain quiet dependability that is felt at the store. Students devote untold hours serving the school. When time permits, homework is done. It seems to be a gratifying responsibility.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

The American Field Service means many things to many people, but to Donna Sigafoos it meant the whole new world of the British Isles. From July to August of 1967, Donna lived and breathed names like Belfast, Dublin, London, Oxford, and Coventry. She felt the genuine warmth of acceptance by a great Irish family and many, many new friends. Nothing was common. Everything was an unforgetable experience. Donna glows and beams when she talks about "going over." She'll never be the same again.

Donna beams . . . Ireland, of course!

Jennifer Scott, Mother Scott, Donna Sigafoos, Daddy Scott.

Donna with London bobby.

JUNIOR PROM

How high can you reach?

For one of the year's brief moments, the bleachers, baskets and apparatus were put aside and the gym transformed magically into a breath-taking POLYNESIAN PARADISE. The excitement of full-dress, formals, and dreamy dancing was topped only by the crowning of the KING and QUEEN.

Beachcombers wait on tables.

Broad view of things.

POLYNESIAN PARADISE

Sitting this one out.

Art Edinger crowns Paul Korbulic King as Queen Ann Bortzner looks on.
